

SNARL 2014 Lecture Series

Sierra Nevada Aquatic Research Lab

Natural Reserve System
University of California
Santa Barbara

- May 6 Knowing the Yosemite Snowpack: the NASA/JPL Airborne Snow Observatory
Dr. Thomas H. Painter, Research Scientist, Jet Propulsion Laboratory
- May 13 The Ecological Importance of California's Rim Fire
Dr. Chad Hanson, Director, The John Muir Project, UC Davis
- May 20 Extreme Weather and the Drought of 2013
Chris Smallcomb, National Weather Service, Reno, NV
- May 27 Water Quality in Mammoth Creek: Manganese, Mercury, and Nutrients
Dr. Mark Drew, Regional Manager, California Trout
- June 3 Cacti, Agaves and Yuccas of Eastern California
Stephen Ingram, Author & Professional Photographer
- June 10 The Eastern Sierra Black Bear Project
Jonathan Fusaro, CA Department of Fish and Wildlife

7 PM Tuesday evenings at the Green Church (Hwy. 395 and Benton Crossing Rd.).

Admission is free and the public is invited. Not suited for young children.

Lectures last approximately one hour.

For more information call Leslie Dawson at 935-4356 or email ldawson@msi.ucsb.edu