

White Mountain Research Station 2010 PUBLIC LECTURE SERIES

3000 East Line Street
Bishop, CA
760-873-4344

All lectures begin at 7:00 pm and are FREE to the public!

Thursday, February 18

Continuing Rock Art Research in Northern Australia,

David Lee, Researcher, Author, Lecturer

Thursday, February 25

Escaping the Extinction Vortex: Identifying factors affecting population performance and recovery in endangered Sierra Nevada Bighorn Sheep, Heather Johnson, Sierra Nevada Bighorn Sheep Recovery Program, California Department of Fish and Game

Thursday, March 4

Research Update on Causes of Acute Mountain Sickness (AMS)

Frank Powell, Director, UC White Mountain Research Station

Thursday, March 18

Mass effects, thresholds, and alternative states: New ways of thinking about post-fire vegetation dynamics in the Mojave

Rob Klinger, USGS Yosemite Field Station

Thursday, April 1

Using Osteopathic Manipulations to Decrease the Incidence of Acute Mountain Sickness

David Hakopian, Touro University

Thursday, April 8

Geological gems of the Eastern Sierra

W.H. 'Terry' Wright, Professor Emeritus Sonoma State University

Thursday, April 15

Is climate change affecting Sierran insects and plants? Can we measure it?

John Smiley, Associate Director, UC White Mountain Research Station

Thursday, April 22

TBA

Dave Rhode, Research Professor, Desert Research Institute